VINTAGE REPORT

Characterized by a mild winter, a dry spring, and a very hot, dry summer. Late-summer rainfall, combined with significant day-to-night temperature variations, allowed for optimal ripening and exceptionally healthy grapes.

VINIFICATION AND AGING

Careful grape selection during the harvest. The alcoholic fermentation and maceration take place in temperature-controlled stainless-steel vats for approximately 20 days, to softly extract all the grapes potential. Total aging is 30 months of which 12 months in large Slavonian oak casks for Sangiovese and barriques and tonneaux for Merlot and Cab. Sauvignon. Blended wine, then, is aged in concrete vats and at least 3 months in bottle.

TASTING NOTES

Color: ruby red with garnet hues

Aromas: intense notes of cherry, plum and violet stand out, unfurling a more complex bouquet with hints of eucalyptus, black pepper and coffee beans.

Tasting profile: a wine of impressive structure with elegant and soft tannins supported by nice acidity.

WHY?

- Riserva Ducale Oro preempted the Gran Selezione concept. It was invented in 1947 as an additional selection of Riserva Ducale, Chianti Classico Riserva.
- Ultimate expression of ORObyRUFFINO project in which Ruffino fine wines meet design. Derived from the Latin word for «all», Omnes celebrates conviviality and the value of human connections. It brings together organic forms and brass details in a visual narrative of belonging, dialogue, and togetherness, expressing the essence of Ruffino's philosophy.
- Limited and special edition exclusively produced in 2200 magnum bottles by Millim Studio.
